Please come if you can for intercessory prayer in Our Lady's Chapel at Mother of God Community on Monday of each week from 8:00 pm to 9:00 pm to pray for the closing of the late-term abortion clinic in Bethesda, for all the intentions of the Mother of God Community and also for all of our young adults, that God would set their hearts on fire with the gospel and that He would bring all of them into the fullness of who God has created them to be. With confident prayer that God hears the cry of the poor, we trust that our prayers will be taken to the heart of the Father through the mighty Name of Jesus and through the powerful intercession of Our Lady. Intercessory prayer will continue every week, same time, same place. Please join us when you can, and pray on your own when you can't!

Mother of God Community Summer Faith-Sharing DVD Series

Who is this Man? — The Unpredictable Impact of the Inescapable Jesus by John Ortberg

Location: Mother of God Community, Goshen House living room.

Schedule: MONDAYS, June 11, 18, 25; July 16, 23, 30. Gather: 6:45 p.m.; Program: 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Each session includes an introduction, video presentation, and group discussion

Join us on Monday nights during June and July for a FREE five-session DVD-based faith-sharing series Who is this Man? *The Unpredictable Impact of the Inescapable Jesus. Our guide as we explore this timeless question will be John Ortberg, senior pastor at Menlo Park Presbyterian Church in the San Francisco Bay area and host of numerous widely-acclaimed DVD series. Ray and Dawn Glennon, our hosts again this summer, participated in this series with friends while on vacation last summer. The Glennons and the entire group thought it was enlightening and challenging, and it prompted engaging and fruitful discussions, many of which continued after the session.

In Who Is This Man?, John Ortberg reveals how Jesus made an inescapable influence on our world. Jesus is history's most familiar figure. His impact on the world is immense and non-accidental. From the Dark Ages to Post-Modernity he is the man who won't go away. And yet ...

- Jesus did not brashly defend his movement in the spirit of a rising political or military leader.
- He did not lay out a case that history would judge superior in all future books.
- He did not start by telling his disciples, "Here are proofs of my divinity; affirm them and I'll accept you."

Who Is This Man? illustrates how Jesus' influence has swept over history, bringing his inspiration to the evolution of art, science, government, medicine, and education. And how his vision for us to lead lives of dignity, compassion, forgiveness, and hope continues to inspire and challenge humanity today. Ortberg brilliantly shows us both the biblical Jesus and the Jesus who is alive and active in our world today.

World-renowned biblical scholar and Anglican bishop N.T. Wright says: "John Ortberg has nailed one of the Big Lies of Our Time, the assertion that Christianity has been part of the problem rather than the source of the solution. Most people today don't realize that things we now take for granted, like education and health care, were reserved for the rich elite in the ancient world until Christians insisted on providing them for everyone within reach."
